Tasting Notes

Sauvignon Blanc

Is a green skinned grape which originates from the Bordeaux region of France. It produces a crisp, dry and refreshing white wine varietal.

Syrah

Often powerfully flavored and full bodied. Typically produces hints of blackberry, chocolate, espresso and black pepper. Earthy and Savory.

Grenache

Full bodied, light red wine. Generally spicy, berry flavored and soft on the palate.

Tempranillo

Native to Spain, oak barrel aged, vibrant and aromatic black grape. Grown to make full bodied red wine and offers a robust, spicy red fruit flavor.

Sangiovese

Italy's Sangiovese region is known for this classic Chianti grape. Typically it produces a medium to full bodied wine. Dominate flavors include cherry, plum, Strawberry, cinnamon and vanilla. Aged in oak barrels lend to a soft and lush finish.

Zinfandel

Typically produces a robust red wine known for its rich dark color and flavors such as raspberry, blackberry, cherry, plum and raisin. Spice, black pepper, And various intensities of oak complete and balance out this popular coastal wine.
